

A UNAIDS SIDE EVENT AT THE COMMISSION ON NARCOTIC DRUGS (CND)

REACHING GLOBAL AIDS TARGETS THROUGH HARM REDUCTION AND REFORM OF RESTRICTIVE DRUG POLICY FRAMEWORKS

The side event will provide a forum for all relevant stakeholders: member states, civil society, technical agencies, donors, etc., to identify and discuss critical action necessary for attaining the targets of the recently adopted Global AIDS Strategy “Ending Inequalities, Ending AIDS” (2021-2026) and the 2021 High-Level Political Declaration on HIV and AIDS adopted by the General Assembly in 2021, as well as the interlinkages with the UN Common Position on Drugs, in relation to HIV among people who use drugs.

March 18th, 2022, 12:15 - 13:10 CET

Zoom (English + possibly Russian translation)

Register here:

<https://unaids.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZMpdOmrqDouGdbQZu9w0UDjAIB7Mq6l1G7l>

Speakers:

Professor Matthew Kavanagh, Deputy Executive Director, UNAIDS
Member State-Germany Mission Representative

Dr. Narong Saiwongse, The Government of The Kingdom of Thailand, Skylar Louttit, Young, Key Populations and Human Rights Advocate, Canada

Alla Bessonova, Women's Key Populations Network, Kyrgyzstan

Judy Chang, Executive Director, INPUD

Moderators: Jane Batte and Dasha Ocheret, UNAIDS